ANCIENT WOODLAND UNDER THREAT FROM OVERSIZED DEVELOPMENT

Mais House, on Sydenham Hill, is due to be developed. Planning permission to replace the former sheltered housing block with a development of 110 units up to 8 storeys high has been granted. The increased density is set to have a huge impact on this sensitive environmental area enjoyed by people from across South London.

Residents have been campaigning for a less dense development and are now seeking Judicial Review. We have already raised enough to file the claim in court and are now raising a further £5,000, by January 26th to move to the next stage.
